

Name _____ Date _____

The Old Legend

An old legend tells of the Cave of _____. The cave (name of student in the class) was _____ and _____. There were (adjective) (adjective)

three secret rooms in the cave. The legend says each room was filled with beautiful, sparkling _____, a rare (plural noun)

treasure. The first room had _____, the second (four-digit number)

room had _____, and the third room had (four-digit number)

_____. No one has ever been in any of these rooms (four-digit number) because of the legend. The legend says if anyone enters the cave, his or her _____ will _____.

(body part) (verb)

_____. And no one wants that!
(adverb)

Question: Which room has the most treasure? _____

Name _____ Date _____

Election Report

Here's your up-to-the-minute election report! It has been a very _____ election, but (adjective)

the results are in. In the race for

_____,
(occupation) _____ has _____ votes, while (name of student in the class) (five-digit number) _____ has _____. The third (name of student in the class) (six-digit number) candidate, _____, has _____ (name of student in the class) (different six-digit number) votes. The three candidates have all spent more than _____ on this race.

(seven-digit number) (plural noun)

Question: Who finished in second place? _____

Name _____ Date _____

The Pie-Eating Contest

The _____ Annual (ordinal number) _____ County Fair just (place) had its pie-eating contest. The favorite pie was, of course, _____ pie.
(noun)

_____ ate (name of famous woman) _____ pies. She used her (three-digit number) _____ to eat with, but that's actually legal. Her (body part) _____ competitor, _____, ate (adjective) (name of famous man)
_____. He ate while sitting on a (three-digit number)
_____. He says it helps his digestion.
(noun)

Question: How many pies did they eat altogether? _____

Name _____ Date _____

Book Lover

I love books! When I'm not reading books, I can usually be found _____ them. I like a glass of (verb ending in -ing)

_____ when I'm reading and a little (liquid) _____ to munch on. This weekend I read a (noun)

new book, "The Mystery of the _____ (adjective)

_____." It had _____ pages. That (noun) (four-digit number) was really _____! I also read "The Beginner's Guide (adjective)

to _____." That had (verb ending in -ing) (plural noun)

_____ pages.
(four-digit number)

Question: How many pages did you read this weekend? _____

Name _____ Date _____

The Unusual Spell

There once was a sorcerer who always wore a pointed _____ (noun)

on his head. His name was _____, (name of boy in the class) and he lived in a _____ high above _____.

(noun) (place) He cast a spell on _____ because she would not marry his (name of girl in the class)

_____. She slept for _____ years.
(noun) (three-digit number)

She was awakened by the kiss of a _____ prince,
(adjective)

_____. Unfortunately, the sorcerer found out and put (name of boy in the class)

her to sleep again for _____ more years. Luckily, the prince (three-digit number)

found her once more and kissed her again. She woke up briefly, but then she fell right back asleep for _____ more years (two-digit number) because she watched too much of _____.

(television show)

Question: How many years did she sleep altogether? _____

Name _____ Date _____

Getting in Shape

If you want to get in _____ (adjective)

shape, you must exercise every

_____. Eat plenty of fresh (time measurement)

_____ and drink lots of (plural noun)

_____. _____
(liquid) (number) glasses a day is good to start. Lifting _____ (plural noun)

is very _____ for you also. You should lift (adjective)

_____ pounds in the morning, (five-digit number) _____ in the afternoon, and _____ (five-digit number) (five-digit number) pounds right before bed. You should sleep like a _____ after that.

(noun)

Question: How many pounds should you lift a day? _____

Name _____ Date _____

Buying a New Skateboard

There are lots of _____ (adjective) skateboards out there. You want to make sure you get one with wheels made of _____ so you will go

(plural noun)

_____. The deck should be (adverb)

made of _____, and the coolest colors are (substance) _____ and _____. This means (color) (color)

you need a new _____ model. It sells for (name of student in the class)

_____ dollars, but since you are so (three-digit number greater than 500)

_____, you get a discount of _____ (adjective) (three-digit number less than 500) dollars.

Question: How much will the skateboard cost you? _____

Name _____ Date _____

The Ice-Cream Sundae

Our favorite place to go for an ice-cream sundae is _____'s (name of teacher)

Ice-Cream Emporium and

_____ Store. This store
(noun)

has every flavor including _____. When I order mine I get _____ scoops of _____.
(noun)

(one-digit number) (noun) ice cream. I like to put _____ on top and (plural noun)

_____ nuts, too. The clerk had (noun)

_____ nuts, in the container, and he put (four-digit number greater than 3,000)

_____ on mine. It was _____.
(four-digit number less than 2,000) (adjective)

I had to eat it with a _____.
(noun)

Question: How many nuts did the clerk have left in the container?

Name _____ Date _____

The Perfect Host

When you have guests over, you want to make a _____ impression. For example, when you (adjective)

_____ your guests, be sure to shake their (verb)

_____ . You may want to offer (body part, plural) (adverb)

your guests some _____ snacks, too.
(adjective)

_____ crackers and _____ -flavored (noun) (noun)

pretzels are good choices. Plan on _____ snacks (three-digit number greater than 500)

before dinner and _____ after dinner. This will help (three-digit number)

your guests be very _____. If you use this plan, you (adjective)

usually have about _____ left over for next time.
(three-digit number less than 500)

Question: How many snacks will your guests eat? _____

Name _____ Date _____

Historical Site

You will surely enjoy visiting the historic _____ mansion. It was built in (first and last name of person in the class) _____ out of _____. One very (year) (plural noun)

interesting feature of the house is the windows, because they are made of _____. This makes the mansion look very (plural noun)

_____. There were originally _____ (adjective) (four-digit number) windows on the first floor and _____ on the (four-digit number greater than 2,000)

second floor. When the mansion was renovated, however, _____ windows were covered over with (four-digit number less than 2,000)

_____.
(plural noun)

Question: How many windows does the mansion have now? _____